Distributions

No distributions were paid in the twelve month period to 30 June, 2011. The Fund has retained sufficient cash to complete the sewerage works in Darwin and to further reduce its debt exposure on quarterly basis. A distribution of 2.5 cents per unit is proposed for the first quarter 2011/2012.

Performance

The Fund's Net Tangible Assets (NTA) increased to $0.98 per unit at 30 June 2011 from $0.95 per unit as at 30 June 2010. The increase in NTA was primarily due to no distributions being paid during the period and the reduction in bank debt.

Operational

FreeSpirit Resort Darwin

With the peak dry season coming to a close, FreeSpirit (the operator of the Resort) reports that trading over the Darwin Cup and Super Cars weekends was excellent with the Resort operating at full capacity. The occupancy during other periods of the dry season was well under previous years trading and reflects the late start to the season and difficulty accessing the Top End due to flooding and related access issues.

In the first half of the year, Darwin experienced one of its worst tourist and trading seasons in many years with major suppliers and accommodation providers reporting very poor results. Major electrical storms during November and December 2010 caused significant electrical damage, power outage and disrupted trade. Cyclone Carlos (category 2) hit Darwin in February 2011 with only superficial damage to the Resort being reported Similar to other tourist locations around Australia, the Northern Territory has seen a slowing in guest numbers and a fall in the length of stay. This is attributed to low consumer confidence coupled with the high Australian dollar providing cheap offshore holiday destinations.

Tracking of guest feedback indicates a high level of guest satisfaction.

In late December 2010/early January 2011, the Fund negotiated an improved arrangement with the Northern Territory Power and Water Corporation (“PWC”) to facilitate a connection of the FreeSpirit Resort to the main sewer line. While the cost sharing arrangement remains, the key components of the infrastructure are now:

- The construction of the rising main (the pump station has been deferred); and
- The construction of the road crossing at Stuart Highway.

The above infrastructure will be project managed, owned and maintained by PWC. This arrangement simplifies the works from the Fund’s perspective confining it to undertake internal works at the Resort to connect to the main PWC sewer line.

Events subsequent to Reporting Period

Both PWC and the Fund contracts have been awarded since year end. Works having commenced and are scheduled for completion by late October/early November, 2011. The Fund’s proportion of the PWC contact and the costs for the internal works at the Resort are presently within budget. Sufficient funds having been retained to pay for these capital works.

Fraser Lodge, Hervey Bay

In addition to the ongoing oversupply issue facing Hervey Bay, Queensland tourism in general has had a difficult year attributed to the high Australian dollar and more recently the impact of cyclonic and flooding weather conditions. In regards to Fraser Lodge, FreeSpirit (the operator of the Resort) reports that these factors have had a moderate impact on occupancy levels and a major impact on the revenue from sales of tour packages. The business has also been affected by a number of local tour operators closing their operations with a resulting fall in tourism commissions. The slowdown in tourism sales is evidenced in both length of stay and guests expenditure.

Tariffs remain under pressure in a market dominated by oversupply and continued discounting however, Fraser Lodge is positioned as the premier park and as such has had some success in maintaining reasonable tariffs against its competitors. While Fraser Lodge experienced subdued trading over the past 6 months, it appears that the impact on Fraser Lodge has been less than on other tourist operators. Guest feedback regarding their holiday experience at Fraser Lodge is excellent.

FreeSpirit, in conjunction with the Fund Manager, are currently reviewing options for the demolition and redevelopment of the now closed 12 Studio Units. A Master Plan for the redevelopment is expected to be completed by December, 2011. An adjustment to rent was agreed to between the Fund and FreeSpirit following their closure in February, 2011.
